

A Note from Johnny...

This Sunday is Mike Golson's last Sunday as Executive Pastor of First Baptist Church.

He has served the First Family and the Lord here since October 2004. Mike is a people-building, relationship, disciplinarian, evangelistic, pastor-hearted man of God.

When Mike came to First Baptist we had a great need of relationship building and evangelism. Mike has been used greatly by the Lord in this way, and many have come to Christ and have grown in Him through his living out the Gospel.

He wore many hats here at FBC and he wore them to help the Body of Christ. I never heard him say "no" to anything that needed to be done.

The Lord has ended his time here as a minister, but he and Diana will always have a place here and in our hearts.

Sunday we release Mike to obey the Lord in whatever way the Lord leads. Our prayers will be with him and Diana as they wait upon the Lord.

Next Sunday, Glenn Sheppard will be with us for one of our Winter Wellness Sundays. Glenn is one of our yearly events. I don't know of anyone in the world who sees what he sees when it comes to Kingdom of God on earth. The hand of the Lord is upon him and I look forward to what the Lord will say to us through him. Glenn is the president of International Prayer Ministries and one of the founding members of the National Prayer Committee.

He will preach both Morning and Evening services. You will miss a word from the Lord if you miss this time.

Remember the upcoming Family Conference on Saturday, January 27, with Dr. Timothy Paul Jones. Dr. Jones is a professor of Discipleship and Family at Southern Seminary. If you have not yet signed up for this event, you may go to our website or come by the church office.

This Sunday I will conclude last week's message on "True Christianity." So prepare for worship by submitting to the Holy Spirit's leading.

Thanks for allowing me to be your pastor!
